IBM 000-M20

000-M20 IBM Information Management DB2 Technical Sales Mastery v1

Practice Test

Version 1.1

QUESTION NO: 1

What are DB2 wizards?

A. DB2 wizards programs are automated in DB2. They run as background processes of the database and they automatically configure database parameters.
B. DB2 wizards are DBAs that are considered the top of their field in DB2.
C. DB2 wizards are programs that assist you in completing a single task by stepping you through the task.
D. DB2 does not have wizard functionality.

Answer: C

QUESTION NO: 2

What is the role of the DB2 control center?

A. The DB2 control center allows you to administer all your systems, instances, databases, and database objects.
B. The DB2 control center is the main table where all metadata about the database is stored in a DB2 database.
C. The DB2 control center serves as a collection of command-line entry commands that allow the DBA to administer the DB2 database.
D. DB2 does not have aDB2 control center.

Answer: A

QUESTION NO: 3

What is the DB2 command editor?

A. The DB2 command editor is the initial command-line interface that allows you to install the DB2 product.
B. The DB2 command editor is a new feature in DB2. It is a command-line tool that allows you to define and implement new SQL commands to be used in relational operations on the database.
C. The DB2command editor does not exist in DB2.
D. The DB2 command editor is a tool that allows you to work with query results; view graphical representation of the access plan for SQL statements; run commands in sequence; and create, save, and schedule the execution of scripts.

Answer: D