CA Technologies

Exam CAT-440

CA Performance Management r2.x Professional Exam

Version: 6.0

[Total Questions: 50]

Question No : 1

In CA Performance Center,permission groups:

A. Are always read-only copies of system or custom groups.
B. Are custom groups that organize managed items for data access purposes.
C. Are known as context groups until they are assigned to user accounts as permission sets.
D. Are used to group users who have common access requirements to selected data sources.

Answer: B

Question No : 2

CA Performance Center can be uninstalled:

A. by using the Uninstall_PerformanceCenter program.
B. only if you first uninstall the Event Manager and then run sudo apt-get remove.
C. by using the Installation Wizard only,which will also uninstall MySQL data and temporary directories by default.
D. by first uninstalling the Data Aggregator and then following the prompts that will enable you to select the database and UI-related components to remove.

Answer: A

Question No : 3

When you configure tenant-aware monitoring using service tiers,you can configure change detection functionality. Why might you configure change detection?

A. To define event thresholds
B. To discover new devices in the monitored environment
C. To configure how often the system checks for changes in device components
D. To check collections have been added,changed,or removed from monitoring profiles

Answer: C

Question No : 4

You are installing the Data Repository in a clustered configuration. What is the minimum number of hosts that you can use for your cluster?

A. Two
B. Three
C. Four
D. Five

Answer: B

Question No : 5

You want to make sure that a custom vendor certification supports its parent family for applicable devices. Which steps should you perform? (Choose three)

A. Run the soapUIopen source testing utility.
B. Run a discovery to ensure that applicable devices are modeled.
C. Update the appropriate metric family in the Data Aggregator UI.
D. Set the logging level to DEBUG in the log4j.xml file for the Data Collector component.
E. Examine the dashboard or view that uses the metrics to confirm that expected and reasonable values are being polled.

Answer: B,C,E

Question No : 6

Which statement is FALSE?

A. The groups assigned to your user account determine the data you can view on dashboards.
B. A best practice is to create groups to meet strategicIT objectives rather than business objectives.
C. In the Groups tree,Service Provider Global Groups contain items not explicitly associated with a tenant IP domain.
D. Users can use the section of the Groups tree below their permission groups to change the data context for summary or group dashboards.